PROJECT RADIOPEACE

RADIOPEACE is a project that harnesses the power of music and movement to promote democratic values and foster intercultural dialogue among young people in countries marked by conflict and tension.

Through non-formal education (NFE) methods, the project will create a participatory and inclusive learning environment, engaging NFE trainers, youth workers, project ambassadors, and students from partner countries. By integrating the positive values of ethnic music and dance into the learning process, RADIOPEACE aims to highlight the shared cultural heritage connecting the Western Balkans and Europe.

Ultimately, the project seeks to support reconciliation, peacebuilding, tolerance, and the promotion of non-violent narratives and actions among youth.

HOSTING ORGANIZATION: MV INTERNATIONAL

MV International(MVI) is a pan-European network comprising 37 NGOs from the 27 EU countries, 10 non-EU European countries, and 8 associate organizations from Africa, Latin America, and Asia. Established in 2012, MV International focuses on themes related to social entrepreneurship, non-formal education, and sustainability, aligning with the Erasmus+ program's objectives.

Mission:

MV International, a non-profit "association of associations," aims to promote social involvement, community building, and advocacy for its members. It actively engages in public discourse on civil society engagement, influencing policies in the areas of its interest.

Services:

MV International concentrates on three main areas: project activities, education, and policy-making/advocacy. Its professionals, members, and volunteers engage in policy studies, thematic research, regional surveys, proposal development, project implementation, network/training events, and more, contributing to the evolution of European design.

MV International is experienced in establishing thematic consortia, forming partnerships, developing/implementing European projects, and organizing high-profile conferences, seminars, and hearings. With a network of 37 member organizations, it can effectively disseminate project research and results.

PARTICIPANTS & REGISTRATION

There will be in total of 20 participants in the Training course coming through the partners' organisations.

- MV International (Italy)
- Youth Society for Peace and Development of the Balkans, YSPDB [Bulgaria]
- ANTIK ASSOCIATION, ANTIK [Albania]
- MUS-E KOSOVA, MUS-E [Kosovo].

The 7-day international training course will bring together 5 youth workers (aged 25+) from each partner country, selected through a transparent and non-discriminatory process via internal and public calls. Designed as a hands-on pilot of the Training Course Format (TCF), this activity aims to upskill youth workers by equipping them with Non-Formal Education (NFE) tools to promote tolerance, intercultural dialogue, and peacebuilding through music and dance.

Led by partner organisations, the training will feature practical sessions that integrate artistic expression with participatory NFE methodologies. Participants will actively contribute to the co-design and development of the first section of the Training Guide, offering insights from their experiences to fine-tune and validate the training approach.

This training is not only a learning opportunity but also a capacity-building experience for youth workers, fostering both their personal and professional development. Upon completion, participants will receive a certificate of participation recognized through the SALTO system, ensuring visibility of their learning outcomes and supporting their continued engagement in the field of youth work.

THE TRAVEL, FOOD, AND ACCOMMODATION WILL BE REIMBURSED (EVENTUALLY ARRANGED) BY YOUR SENDING ORGANISATION TO THE SPECIFIC CEILING. PLEASE, DO CONTACT YOUR SENDING ORGANISATION FOR MORE DETAILS.

The sending organization is responsible for accommodation. Depending on your preferences and arrangements, you can choose between a shared apartment or hotel rooms, available on platforms like Airbnb and Booking.com. Availability can be limited, so we recommend checking early. We suggest looking for accommodations in the area between the station and Hotel Deledda, which is within walking distance of the venue. For other options, the city center offers plenty of choices, all easily accessible on foot.

AGENDA

Participants are expected to arrive on Monday, 15th September and depart on Sunday, 21st September.

The training course will take place primarily at Hotel Deledda, Sassari, with a final day session in Alghero. The first four days will feature sessions focused on non-formal education (NFE) methodologies using music and dance as tools for peace-building. Participants will explore intercultural dialogue, peace-building activities, and co-design tools for social campaigns. On the fifth day, participants will have the opportunity for cultural exploration through local art and traditions, strengthening their intercultural competences. The final day will conclude with a summary, evaluation, and the awarding of YouthPass certificates.

All workshops will be facilitated and led by the partner organisations, with the active involvement of participants, ensuring a collaborative and diverse learning experience.

Key Venues:

- Hotel Deledda, Sassari: Morning and afternoon sessions from 16th to 19th September.
- Institute Roth, Alghero: Final day (20th September) sessions and activities. The precise address and logistics will be provided at the start of the training.

GOOD TO KNOW: ABOUT THE CITY

Food

Traditional Sardinian cuisine is a rich tapestry of flavours rooted in the island's pastoral and maritime heritage. Key dishes include "porceddu," a succulent spit-roasted suckling pig, and "malloreddus," small, ridged pasta often served with a tomato and sausage sauce. "Culurgiones," delicate pasta pockets filled with potato, mint, and pecorino cheese, are a beloved speciality. The island's proximity to the sea is evident in its seafood dishes like "fregula con arselle," a type of couscous with clams. "Pane carasau," a crisp, thin flatbread, is a staple at many meals. Sheep cheese, particularly "pecorino sardo," is central in many dishes. Desserts like "sebadas," pastries filled with fresh cheese and drizzled with honey, showcase the island's use of simple, high-quality ingredients to create memorable flavours.

Weather

The average minimum temperature (usually the minimum temperature is noted during the night) in Sassari in September is 16.0°C (60.8°F). The amount of rain in September is normal with an average of 39mm (1.5in). The average maximum temperature lies around 26.0°C (78.8°F).

Some other tips

In Italy, the unit of currency is the Euro (€). It is not convenient to go to currency exchange offices at the airport because their exchange rates are higher. You can exchange money in exchange offices in the city, postal offices, and banks, which generally offer the best rates. It is better not to drink water from the sink.

Usually shops close at lunchtime (around 13:00/13:30) and reopen in the afternoon (between 16:00 and 17:00) and close around 20:00 or 20:30. Some shops or supermarkets do not do a lunch break.

Lunch: approximately from 12:30 to 15:00. Dinner: approximately from 19:30 to 22:30. Breakfast: a typical Italian breakfast is sweet, usually with milk and coffee and a croissant.
